

INFORMED CONSENT AND THERAPY AGREEMENT

I, the patient, understand I have the right not to sign this form. My signature below indicates I have read and discussed this agreement; it does not indicate that I am waiving any of my rights. I understand I can choose to discuss my concerns with you, the therapist, before I start formal therapy. I also understand that any of the points mentioned above can be discussed and may be open to change. If at any time during the treatment I have questions about any of the subjects discussed, I can talk with you about them, and you will do your best to answer them.

I understand that after therapy begins, I have the right to withdraw my consent to therapy at any time in writing, for any reason. However, I will make every effort to discuss my concerns about my progress with you before ending therapy with you. I understand that no specific promises have been made to me by this therapist about the results of treatment, the effectiveness of the procedures used by this therapist, or the number of sessions necessary for therapy to be effective. I have read, or have had read to me, the issues and points concerning therapy with Blair Danz. I have discussed those points I did not understand, and have had my questions, if any, fully answered. I agree to act according to the points covered in this brochure. I hereby agree to enter into therapy with this therapist, and to cooperate fully and to the best of my ability, as shown by my signature here.

Couples & Family Therapy

If you are seeing me for couple or family therapy, I consider your relationship to be the client and confidentiality and privilege does not apply between the couple or among family members. During the course of our work, I may see one of you individually for one or more sessions or for part of a session. These sessions should be seen as part of the work that I am doing with the couple or family unless otherwise indicated. I will use clinical judgment when revealing such information. I will encourage the person(s) to reveal the information to the other member(s). I will provide support for that person(s) in finding ways to disclose the information. If you reveal to me a "secret" that you refuse to disclose to the others and that puts me, by my knowing the "secret", in a position of hurting my genuine relationship with others in the couple/family, therapy will be terminated. I will not release records to any outside party unless so authorized to do so, in writing, by every member of the couple or family in treatment able to execute a waiver.

Recording sessions is not allowed. If you are caught recording the therapeutic process will be terminated immediately and you will be referred to another psychotherapist and if this is an open court case, your behavior will be reported to the court immediately.
